

sinclair stations (Local KMWB,WB23) are not serving the public interest by broadcasting a one sided (and false) video about John Kerry. This is an example of why owners should not be able to consolidate and own many stations , then used as a political tool.

They are on public airwaves, free of charge. wcoo is a good example of a large company serving the public interest with balanced coverage and programming. Thankyou.